Summary EU heavily reliant on Chinese solar panel imports Some European solar manufacturers on brink of collapse Governments, industry split over how to help Europe wants to grow local clean tech manufacturing (Reuters) - Europe's green energy transition is. Chinese-manufactured solar photovoltaic (PV) panels are piling up in European warehouses, with approximately 40 gigawatts-direct current* (GWdc) of capacity currently in storage - the same amount installed across the continent in 2022. These solar panels in storage are worth about €7 billion and. Europe is installing more solar panels than ever before, thanks to a flood of cheap Chinese solar panels, driving installations by 40% last year. But it comes at a hefty cost: Local solar manufacturers are on the brink of a total collapse that could happen within weeks. The vast majority of those panels and parts came from China - in some cases, 95%, International Energy Agency data show. With the European Union targeting at least 30 GW of domestic manufacturing capacity by 2030 through the Net Zero Industry Act (NZIA), the focus has shifted from mere price to "non-price criteria" such as.
