

Selling solar power in Vietnam scam

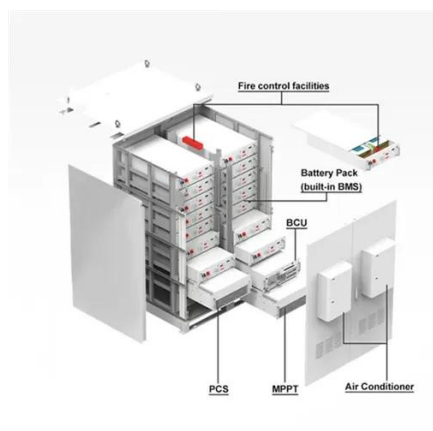

Overview

Hoang Quoc Vuong, 62, admitted taking a US$57,600 bribe to favour solar power plants in southern Ninh Thuan province with special pricing when they sold power to the national electricity company. HANOI: A court in Vietnam jailed a former deputy minister of industry and trade for six years on Tuesday after finding him guilty of "power abuse" in a solar energy development plan. With that demand comes fierce competition within the solar panel market. Scams, schemes and straight-up fraud abound in the dark underbelly of an otherwise light-filled industry.
